WeAr — TESTIMONIALS

RON HERMAN
FOUNDER RON HERMAN
STORES, USA AND JAPAN

WeAr Global Magazine is visually stunning, extraordinarily focused and extremely informative. The three subjects that matter most to me are presented in depth.... the people, the products, and the stores. I have been a subscriber since the launch and will continue to be because WeAr Magazine is r-e-l-e-v-a-n!

COLETTE

WeAr and Colette have been working closely together for 10 years and we are very happy to be part of their adventure. We have had the chance and pleasure to receive the Best Retail Award twice from them and we deeply hope we will continue to work together in the near future. Happy Birthday to you and well done for everything!

What I like the most about WeAr Magazine is the view the camera has. Indeed, you have a very particular signature, an identity. It's a way of focusing on things, on small as on great things. It is a generalist magazine that speaks at an international level. For me it's an excellent source of information and data, which is thus an excellent tool for my work.

LORENZO HADAR
FOUNDER H. LORENZO STORES,

The content is always nice and the quality of the magazine always looks current and luxurious.

At Merci, we always try to invent a personal way to display our collection in accordance with Merci's original positioning. But we always look with a lot of respect to what other retail innovators are trying in the world. For that kind of information, the magazine WeAr is certainly one of the most inspiring.

Why WeAr Magazine? Because it is an innovative window to the fashion world: its images, its pulse, and colors, where information works together with creativity. It's a tangible sensation, all eyes search for new inspiration.

ROBERTA VALENTINI

What I like best about WeAr is when you're publishing photos of store

TOMMASO PECCHIOLI
OWNER OF GERARD LOFT
STORE, FLORENCE, ITALY

It's hard to mention only one favorite thing about WeAr Global Magazine because I think that everything about it is outstanding and very well assembled: size, layout, editorial, and distribution. But the thing that fascinates me most is surely the perfect fusion of art and fashion that is clear in wonderful avant-garde covers, without ever being trivial; thus remaining the point of reference not only for us who work in the industry but also for an audience that invests in the field of art and design in general.

KOKI MINE
GENERAL MANAGER,

Congratulations on your 10th anniversary. I always have WeAr in my hand. The experience is not just about reading it through; it also goes deeper for me. Whenever I am at the point where I have no ideas, I take WeAr magazine and turn the pages. Beautiful clothes and wonderful designs appear there, which I take for inspirations and store in my heart. It's like walking through an exhibition of good art. WeAr always leaves something deep inside of me. When I set up the Ron Herman shop in Japan, I turned the pages of WeAr countless times. WeAr has been and always will be a special input for me, so that other people may enjoy my creative output.

The best thing about WeAr is definitely Behind a success story in any field there is a talent and a vision that is different from the others. This is the case for Klaus and WeAr. He has been able to bring his long experience and mix it with a great sense of innovation and a precise new aesthetic. WeAr has been anticipating the need for being global and, along with lifestyle, it has focused centrally on the product and the design. ABOUT

WeAr

WeAr founded in 2004, is the only high-end leading global fashion and footwear “special interest title”, available IN 8 LANGUAGES (ENGLISH, GERMAN, FRENCH, ITALIAN, SPANISH, RUSSIAN, JAPANESE AND MANDARIN) and speaks directly to the leading buyers, retailers, trendsetters and decision makers.

WeAr’S USP is to present relevant brands, new designer and store concepts to global leading department, retail, online and concept stores such as Barneys, Selfridges, Zalando, 10 Corso Como, Colette or Ron Herman. With the information that WeAr delivers to this target group, the goal is simply to help to increase the profit, lift the image and give ideas and directions to reflect buying and store design decisions.

WeAr is, however, not a trade magazine in the traditional sense, but much rather a coffee-table book, which conveys through high-quality images and extensive information, the feeling that one can even touch the product. For precisely this reason even end consumers with a superior interest in fashion and footwear buy WeAr (partly in the above named retailers).

WeAr stands for quality and a very close contact to the formerly named key-players.

WeAr — GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

01 "Advertising order" in the senses of the following General Terms and Conditions, refers to the agreement to publish one or more advertisements of an advertiser or other space buyer in a printed publication for purposes of circulation.

02 The prices of the advertisements are consequent on the Publisher's Advertising Rate Card in effect at the time the contract is concluded.

03 Advertising agencies and advertising agents are prohibited from passing on the agent's fees granted by the Publisher wholly or in part to their clients.

04 If an order should not be carried out owing to circumstances for which the Publisher is not responsible, the Advertiser must reimburse the Publisher for the difference between the discount granted and that corresponding to the actual sales, regardless of any further legal obligations. No claims on the part of the Advertiser shall ensue, if owing to force majeure (e.g. war, mobilization, labour dispute, terrorist attacks or other unforeseeable events), the publication of the magazine should be diminished or delayed, or should cease altogether.

05 Orders for advertisements and advertising supplements must be submitted to the Publisher according to the valid advertising rate list. Content and dates are subject to change.

06 The Publisher is entitled to mark with the word "Advertisement" those advertisements whose editorial design is such that they are not readily recognizable as advertisements.

07 The Publisher reserves the right to refuse advertising orders – including individual requisitions under the terms of a transaction – and advertising supplements orders on the basis of their technical form or their origin, in accordance with uniform objectively justified principles.

The Publisher reserves all right to refuse advertising orders if the content violates laws or official regulations, or if the publication is unacceptable to the Publisher. The Advertiser will be informed immediately if an order is refused.

08 The Advertiser is responsible for the punctual delivery of the advertising copy and reliable printing data. The Publisher guarantees the quality of printing customary for the assigned publication within the limits set by the printing data.

09 If the print of the advertisement is completely or partially illegible or false, or incompletely printed, the Advertiser may claim a correct substitute advertisement, or a price reduction to the extent that the purpose of the advertisement has been impaired. If the Publisher should exceed a reasonable period of time set for the publication on the substitute advertisement of if it should once again be incorrect, then the Advertiser has the right to a price reduction or a cancellation of the order. Indemnity claims from positive breach of obligation, negligence and tort are excluded – especially in the case of orders placed by telephone. Indemnity claims from impossibility of performance and de-fault are restricted to the replacement of the foreseeable loss and, in the amount, to the remuneration to be paid for the advertisement or advertising supplement in question. This does not apply to premeditation and gross negligence on the part of the Publisher, its legal representatives and its vicarious agents.

A liability of the Publisher for damages owing to the lack of warranted qualities remains unaffected. Furthermore the Publisher is not liable for gross negligence of vicarious agents in commercial business transactions. In the remaining cases, the liability towards merchants for gross negligence is restricted in its extent to the foreseeable damage up to the amount of the remuneration for the advertisement in question. Complaints must be put forward within two weeks of receiving the invoice and receipt, unless the defects are not obvious.

10 In the event that the Advertiser does not make an advance payment, the payment terms are 30 days net, unless otherwise agreed in written order. In the event of default, the Publisher shall charge, with the reservation of further rights, interest for default in the amount of 5% above the respected basic rate of the European Central Bank. In the event of default, the Publisher may postpone the further execution of the current order until payment and request advance payment for the remaining advertisements. If there is a reasonable doubt regarding the Advertiser's ability to pay, the Publisher reserves the right to publish the ad only against advance payment.

11 Upon request the Publisher shall deliver one issue including the advertisement with the invoice.

12 In the event of a reduction in circulation as stated in the valid price list, the Advertiser has the right to a price reduction in relation to the change in circulation, unless the Publisher has informed the Advertiser in time of the drop in circulation and has offered the choice to withdrawing from the contract. The print-run may vary up to 10% due to production problems.

13 In the case of keyed advertisements, the Publisher shall take as much care in handling and punctually passing on the replies as would a responsible businessman. Registered and express letters will only be forwarded by ordinary post. The replies for keyed advertisements shall be kept for four weeks. Replies, which are not collected within this period, shall be destroyed. The Publisher shall return valuable documents without being obligated to do so.

14 Printing data shall be returned to the Advertiser only if expressly requested. The obligation to save them shall end three months after the order has been expired.

15 Placement confirmations are only conditionally valid and may be changed for technical reasons. In such cases the Publisher shall not be liable

16 The place of fulfilment is the principal place of the business of the Publisher. The place of jurisdiction for legal proceedings involving business transactions with merchants, bodies, corporate or special assets is the principal place of business of the Publisher. The same applies if the place of residence or customary place of abode of the Advertiser, including non-traders, is unknown at the time that the legal proceedings are instituted or if the Advertiser's place of residence or customary place of abode should be moved outside the purview of law after closing the contract.
